

PRIVACY POLICY

We respect our user's personal data and privacy. In all our business, we comply with the Finnish Data Protection Act (523/1999, as amended) and other mandatory provisions and rulings relating to personal data and privacy.

Our game is available to everyone. In respect of the user register of our game, we are the data controller. The file description regarding our user register, as required by the Finnish Data Protection Act, can be accessed here: www.4mobgames.com/legal/

Our game is based on the content uploaded into the game by other users. Each user is responsible for the content they upload into the game, as set out in more detail in the terms of use (which can be accessed here: www.4mobgames.com/legal/). Although this is not our purpose, certain parts of the content uploaded into the game by our users may qualify as personal data (such as pictures of people). Our users alone decide whether such content is uploaded into the game.

Due to the nature of the game, we cannot control or verify the content uploaded into the game by our users. In case you believe there is a misuse of personal data, please let us know. You can contact us by sending an email to info@4mobgames.com .
